

ICGL 18 – 2nd Call for Papers

The Department of Linguistics of the Faculty of Philology of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens is pleased to announce the 18th International Conference on Greek Linguistics (ICGL 18), to be held from 21 to 24 September 2027.

The Organising Committee invites the submission of abstracts for oral presentations, poster presentations and workshops on any aspect of the linguistic analysis of Greek, in accordance with the guidelines provided below. Abstracts should be submitted through EasyAbs, which also provides instructions for creating the required account. New information added since the 1st Call for Papers is shown in blue.

Guidelines for abstract submissions

A) Oral and poster presentations

- Each participant may submit one abstract as sole author and/or one abstract as first author. They may also be a co-author, but not first author, of one further submission. Each participant may therefore be involved in a maximum of three submissions, one in each of the above categories.
- Abstracts may be submitted for either oral presentation or poster presentation. On the basis of the anonymous reviewers' recommendations, abstracts originally submitted for oral presentation may instead be accepted for poster presentation.
- Abstracts, in Greek or English, should be submitted as Word (.doc or .docx) or RTF files.
- The abstract uploaded to the “Document” section of the EasyAbs platform must be anonymous.
- Abstracts should be formatted as follows:
 - Paper size: A4
 - Font: Times New Roman
 - Font size: 11 pt
 - Line spacing: 1.5
 - Margins: 2.5 cm
 - One blank line should be inserted between the title and main text, and another between the main text and the references.
- Abstracts should not exceed 600 words excluding references.

B) Workshop proposals

- Workshop proposals should contain:

- the organiser's name and affiliation
- the title of the workshop
- a description of its content
- a list of participants, including names and affiliations
- Organisers are free to invite participants and/or issue a call for abstracts.
- Organisers are responsible for collecting and reviewing the abstracts for the papers presented at their workshop. These abstracts will not be submitted through the conference EasyAbs platform, but according to the procedure determined by the organiser(s) of each workshop.
- Each workshop will be allotted a maximum of five (5) hours, which the organisers are free to distribute as they like, provided that the scheduled coffee and lunch breaks are respected.
- If a workshop is not accepted, the abstracts submitted to that workshop will not be considered as individual contributions to the main conference.
